Government Information Management and Services Specialization
Online Cohort
(Formally the E-government Specialization)
Fall 2013 and Later

Below is the planned program of study, though it may be necessary to make adjustments based on course availability.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Semester</th>
<th>Courses</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Fall 1   | • LBSC 602: Serving Information Needs
           • LBSC 631: Achieving Organizational Excellence |
| Spring 1 | • INST 612: Information Policy
           • LBSC 671: Creating Information Infrastructures |
| Summer 1 | • LBSC 767: Access to Federal Government Information
           • INST 607: E-government |
| Fall 2   | • LBSC 620: Diverse Population, Inclusion, and Information
           • LBSC 708K: E-librarianship |
| Spring 2 | • LBSC 707: Field Study
           • LBSC 791: Designing Principled Inquiry |
| Summer 2 | • LBSC 708J: Planning and Evaluation for Government Information
           • LBSC 735: Legal Issues in Managing Information |