If you began the MLS Program prior to Fall 2013, the following basic requirements are the requirements you should follow. All MLS students must complete the MLS core that consists of four core courses* within the first 18 credits of the program. Students must maintain a 3.0 GPA within the core requirements.

1. MLS Core Courses - 12 Credits
   - LBSC 601 Users and Information Context
   - LBSC 650 Information Access Services
   - LBSC 670 Organization of Information
   - LBSC 690 Information Technology

2. MLS Required Courses – 6 credits
   - LBSC 635 Management and Administration for the Information Professional
   - Field Study (LBSC 707 Field Study in Library Service OR LBSC 703 Field Study in Archives, Records, and Information Management OR LBSC 744 Internship in School Library)

3. Additional 18 credits – Determined by your specialization
   - Archives, Records, and Information Management
   - Government Information Management and Services (formerly eGovernment)
   - Individualized Program Plan (formerly the General Program)
   - Information and Diverse Populations
   - School Library